One of the finest destinations in the Algarve, the historic town of Alvor is delightful with its traditional Portuguese appearance, narrow cobbled streets and fishing boats pulled up along the banks of the river.

Alvor has a calm and welcoming ambience and is a favourite with families during summer, and retirees outside of the peak months.

The town lies on the banks of the Alvor Estuary, overlooking the protected marshlands of Ria de Alvor Nature Reserve, while to the south is the Praia de Alvor, one of the largest sandy beaches of the Algarve.
